15 ISSUE SUMMONS regarding events related to the failure of a third party paperwork facilitator to obtain a court-

18 The below facts are hereby attested to be true and the undersigned swears that the following statements are 19 made under the penalties of perjury.

- 20
- I relied upon a non-attorney layman who is a resident of South Carolina to file the initial lawsuit paperwork
21 and documents with the Clerk of the U.S.D.C. serving the Columbia area.
  - The person relied upon by me personally visited the U.S.D.C. serving the Columbia area and docketed this 22 instant lawsuit.
  - This third party states and is convinced that the Clerk of the Court did not return a stamped Court-issued 23 summons and a stamped copy of the complaint to be provided to the defendant.
- 24
25
26

- The third-party person relied upon requested copies of the Court-issued summons and complaint and was allegedly told by the Clerk on-duty that these documents had to be sent to Charleston for official docketing and stamping by the Clerk in Charleston.
- Diligent inquires have been made to locate these documents and those inquiries have proven to be unsuccessful.

I hereby attest, under penalties of perjury, that the above statements are true to the best of my memory and understanding.
